"Handicrafts" includes handicrafts defined in Appendix 17 of the Import-Export Policy or otherwise determined by the Central Government from time to time for the purpose of export from India.

BYE LAWS

2. The Council may from time to time frame such Bye-laws as may be considered appropriate for the efficient conduct of the affairs of the Council including, but not limited to, Bye-laws relating to admission of members to the Council for determination of the representation to the Council to be granted to industrial, commercial or public bodies specifying the period for which they shall be continued as member in conformity with provisions of the Act. The Council may in like manner at any time and from time to time rescind or alter or add to any of the Bye-laws passed by special resolution and approved by CENTRAL GOVERNMENT.

MEMBERS

3. Any person, HUF, firm, or association of person, joint stock company or other Corporation or co-operative society who shall be engaged in the business of export of handicrafts and who shall satisfy the requirements of the Bye-Laws, if any, framed by the Council in this behalf.
4. All applications for membership shall be sent to the Secretary alongwith a Cheque / Demand Draft for the prescribed entrance and annual fees and the required documents. The committee shall have power to prescribe the form of application.
5. On receipt of any such application the secretariate will process the same and have it approved by Secretary and in his absence Chairman or Vice-Chairman. The Secretary shall issue a membership certificate and put up it for ratification of such membership in ensuing meeting of Committee of Administration.
6. If any application is rejected, the Secretary shall notify the applicant of such rejection. The applicant has a right to appeal to Committee for re-consideration / review of his admission.
7. If the Committee accepts any application, the Secretary shall notify the applicant of such approval and thereupon the applicant shall immediately become a Council Member; provided that all fees and other dues payable by such applicant to the Council have been paid by him and no newly admitted member shall be permitted to enjoy any of the privileges of a member until he shall have first paid his subscription and entrance fee and other fees to the Council. Should a new admitted member fail to pay his subscription and such other fees as aforesaid within one month of the date of admission, such admission shall be considered void and the application shall deemed to have been rejected.
8. Any member wishing to resign from the Council, shall give to the Secretary two calendar month's notice in writing of his/her intention to resign and until such notice is given and until the expiry thereof, he/she shall be deemed to continue to be a member and shall be liable to pay his/her annual fee and all other dues, if any, to the Council. No fees shall be refunded to a member resigning as aforesaid. Such resignation shall also not affect any liability of the member to contribute to the assets of the Council as provided in the Memorandum of Association. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained hereinabove, the Committee may refuse to accept the resignation of a member unless and until all arrears of subscription and any other sums which may be due on the date of receipt of notice of resignation by the member to the Council have been paid.
9. Any member of the Council nominated by the Central Government shall cease to be a member or shall be removed or replaced, if the Central Government, so decides, at any time but not otherwise except in the event of death of such manner.

10. Apart from and without prejudice to any other rights and privileges conferred on Council Members either by the Memorandum of Association or by these Articles, Council Members shall have the following right and privileges:
- (a) To vote for election of members of the Committee.
 - (b) To stand for election to the Committee subject to the fulfilment of condition given in Para 3.
 - (c) The right of requisition as mentioned hereinafter to call a Meeting of the Council;
 - (d) The right to receive the Annual Report of the Committee;
 - (e) The right to receive publications of the Council on the terms fixed by the Committee from time to time.
11. Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-clause.
- (a) to this clause, the signatories to the Memorandum of Association shall be the first members of the Council on registration thereof.
