EPCH participated in the 14th edition of the India Trend Fair 2024, held in Tokyo, Japan, from 23 to 25 July, 2024. Mr. Anuj Ojha, Joint Development Commissioner (Handicrafts), Ministry of Textiles, Government of India, led a delegation of 10 Padma Awardees, Shilp Gurus, and National Awardees who took part in the event and conducted live demonstrations of Indian handicraft products.

The fair was inaugurated by HE Ambassador of India to Japan, Mr. Sibi George, along with HE Minister of Economy, Trade, and Industry, Government of Japan, Mr. Ken Saito, Mr. Anuj Ojha, Joint Development Commissioner (Handicrafts), Ministry of Textiles, Government of India; Mr. Sudhir Sekhri, Chairman, AEPC; Mr. Prashant Godghate, Chairman, Japan India Industry Promotion Association (JIIPA); and other Indian participants.

The India Trend Fair in Tokyo is recognised as the largest exhibition showcasing a wide range of handicrafts, textiles, home furnishings, hand-crocheted embroidery, fashion accessories, jute products, and incense sticks.

Under the banner of EPCH, 10 Padma Awardees and Master Craftspersons showcased newly designed handicraft products and performed live demonstrations of traditional Indian crafts, including Mithila and Tikuli paintings from Bihar, hand embroidery and hand-printed textiles from West Bengal, Aradhana Chitra paintings from Karnataka, Kutch Bandhani crafts from Gujarat, palm leaf engraving from Odisha, embroidery and crochet (Chamba Rumal) from Himachal Pradesh, Koftgiri art from Rajasthan, and Dhokra art from Chhattisgarh, with the aim of raising awareness about Indian crafts.

His Excellency Mr. Sibi George, Ambassador of India to Japan, along with other dignitaries, visited the EPCH pavilion and engaged in discussions with the Padma Awardees, Shilp Gurus, and National Awardees. The Ambassador was greatly impressed by the skillful craftsmanship on display and offered guidance to the master craftspersons regarding the Japanese market. He also extended an invitation to all the Padma Awardees, Shilp Gurus, and National Awardees to visit the Embassy of India that evening. ■
