

20 member delegation from Malaysia Wholesalers Association visit EPCH Mumbai

EPCH, Mumbai organised a one-to-one meet of select members of EPCH with the visiting delegation from Malaysia Wholesalers Association to Mumbai on 22nd August, 2019 under the leadership of Mr. Lim Seng Kok, President, Malaysia Wholesalers Association, Kuala Lumpur. The delegation comprised 20 wholesalers and entrepreneurs from sectors of textiles, fashion apparels, fashion accessories, gifts & handicrafts, wholesale complex management, etc.

Mr. Ashok Boob, Convenor, Western Region, EPCH, while welcoming the delegation mentioned that Malaysia is the third largest trading partner of India in the ASEAN Region. The signing of CECA in 2011 has further given a boost to the trade between both the countries. He further said that Malaysia has one of the largest communities of Indian origin in the world at nearly 2 million, which can provide immense scope for exporters of handicraft from India for exporting various life style products.

Mr. Lim Seng Kok, President, Malaysia Wholesalers Association and the leader of the delegation mentioned that visiting India was a clear indication of the importance with which they view the Indian market. "The visit to Mumbai, the financial hub of India would further boost our efforts to exchange our ideas and opportunities for cooperation with the local businessmen, trade associations and the Government authorities. The aim of the Malaysia Wholesalers Association is to nurture international wholesale entrepreneurs through mutual learning and cooperation and with this objective we should work together to bring the colours of India to Malaysia and ASEAN and at the same time to introduce Malaysian local products to the Indian market," he said. Thereafter, one to one meet of the present members with their counter parts took place. ■
