

Centre for Handicrafts Exports Management Studies CHEMS inducts 5th batch as 4th batch graduates

Moradabad, Uttar Pradesh, 21st March 2021

On the Dias (L to R) Ms. Rita Nahata, Dean, CHEMS; Mr. Kamal Soni, Vice President EPCH; Mr. Ravi K Passi, Chairman, EPCH; Dr. Rakesh Kumar, Director General, EPCH; Mr. Awadhesh Agarwal, Coordinator, Regional Committee-Uttar Pradesh-EPCH; and Mr. Nabeel Ahmed, Member, Administrative Committee, EPCH

EPCH launched the fifth batch of Certificate Course in Handicrafts Management Studies (CHEMS). The training of 4 batches have been completed successfully. The fifth batch was initiated with 15 students inducted from Moradabad. This beginning was inaugurated by Mr. Ravi K Passi, Chairman, EPCH; Dr. Rakesh Kumar, Director General, EPCH; Mr. Kamal Soni, Vice President, EPCH; Mr. Nabil Ahmed, Member, Administrative Committee, EPCH; and Mr. Awadhesh Agrawal, Coordinator,

Regional Committee-Uttar Pradesh, EPCH. The lamp lighting was followed by the dignitaries addressing the students. They shared their experiences in the field of handicrafts.

Lamp lighting by Mr. Ravi K Passi Chairman, EPCH; and Dr. Rakesh Kumar, Director General, EPCH

Ms. Rita Nahata, Dean, CHEMS, said that these courses have been started in view of the direct need to prepare good professionals in the field of export management. Through these courses, trained personnel will be available for the handicrafts sector. Certificates were also distributed to the trained students of the fourth batch on this occasion.

Dr. Rakesh Kumar, Director General, EPCH, in his address to the students, said that it has always been the endeavor of the

Certificate Distribution for the 4th batch, CHEMS

Council to make these trainees self-reliant by providing them with the opportunity for maximum training as this is how these students - the backbone of the handicrafts trade, can be forged with the required grooming. According to Dr.Kumar, the handicrafts sector will also need such training for the coming time, for which the Council will always be working. ■

Ms. Rita Nahata, Dean, CHEMS, interacting with the new 5th batch